

American Syllabus (SY 2015-2016)
International Jubilee Private School

Grade/Section: 7C/B

Week: 13

Date: 29/11/ 2015

English Spelling on Monday(Quiz)

1. Study the meanings of the vocabulary words and practice how to use them in sentences.
*Remember that one of the best ways to learn vocabulary words is to continuously practice their usage and put them in sentences.

Homework Tasks

1. Read the next chapter in your anchor book then solve the following task in your reading Journal:
  - Keep a look out for the ways in which the author uses language to describe characters' appearances, actions, feelings; settings and situations. Note these words and phrases down and comment upon the effect they have upon you, the reader.

● Words and phrases – characters	● The effect
● Words and phrases – settings	● The effect
● Words and phrases – situations and events	● The effect

2. Choose one of 'response stems' to help them form their answers:

- The author uses these words to create an effect that . . . - The author uses . . . to make the
- Character seem . . . - The author shows the relationship between the characters by . . .
- The author creates the setting by using words like . . . which makes it feel . . .
- - In this story the author shows the passage of time by using words like . . .
- - The author creates atmosphere/tension by using words like . . .

3. Spelling: Read the sentences below and insert pairs of commas where they are needed.

1. Mexico assumed by many to be a South American country is in North America.
2. Saint Patrick also patron saint of excluded people is the patron saint of Ireland.
3. The Moon although it floats in space like the Earth is not a planet.
4. Bulls despite the fact that they will attack a red cloak are color-blind.
5. A tomato although a fruit is usually eaten on a salad.
6. Eating oily fish although smelly is good for your brain.
7. Sydney the largest city is not the capital of Australia.
8. Water the vital ingredient of life is scarce in many countries.
9. Handmade greeting cards although time-consuming show that you care.