English	CCSS: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language evokes a sense of time and place; how it sets a formal or informal tone). Task 1: Grab some pictures and write a few quick sentences that use figurative language to describe what was happening. Sort the figurative language by type, and generate some in your own description of the picture as well. Only include Similes, Metaphors, Hyperbole, and Personification in the sort. Use the picture below for your reference;  Task 2: Open the link below; print the worksheets and answer all the exercise http://www.ereadingworksheets.com/figurative-language-worksheets/figurative-language-worksheet-03.pdf Task 3: Figurative Language Poem 4 The Dawn's Awake By Otto Leland Bohanan The Dawn's awake! A flash of smoldering flame and fire Ignites the East. Then, higher, higher, O'er all the sky so gray, forlorn, The torch of gold is borne. The Dawn's awake! The dawn of a thousand dreams and thrills. And music singing in the hills A paean² of eternal spring

	Voices the new awakening. The Dawn's awake! Whispers of pent-up harmonies, With the mingled fragrance of the trees; Faint snatches of half-forgotten song-- Fathers! torn and numb,-- The boon of light we craved, awaited long, Has come, has come! 1. Pitifully sad and abandoned or lonely: 2. A song of praise or triumph. Review Questions Directions: Respond to these questions to the best of your ability. Answer the questions completely. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify two examples of personification: explain what is being personified & how in each example. 2. Identify an example of hyperbole: explain how it is exaggerated. 3. Identify an example of metaphor: explain which two things are being compared. 4. Find three examples of imagery in the poem that access three different senses. Explain which senses are called on by the speaker for each example. 5. Contrast the tone of this line “Fathers! torn and numb,--” with the tone of the rest of the poem. How is this line different and why do you think that it is? 6. This poem was written by an African American poet during the Harlem Renaissance. Knowing this, how might one interpret the “Dawn” beyond its literal meaning? What might the “Dawn” represent?
